District Superintendent's Report

We are proud of the hard work our principals, teachers, staff, students, parents, and community members have accomplished this school year: Through their combined efforts, we have improved our instructional department.

Williamsburg County School District is located in a rural community comprised of three high schools, one junior high school, seven elementary schools, one charter school, and a career and technology center.

Our district continues to support our teachers and students by providing professional development, relevant resources, innovative strategies, and best instructional practices. We have implemented effective research-based instructional programs in all schools that enhance our current curriculum and more effectively prepare students for success.

Williamsburg County School District continues to develop opportunities that challenge diverse learners. Our curriculum is closely monitored to ensure its alignment with the most current South Carolina Curriculum Standards for each grade level and subject area.

Together, we will continue to meet and exceed district and state-wide goals. We will encourage all students in our district to maximize their potentials as they prepare to become self-sufficient adults.

Respectfully submitted,

Ralph C. Fennell, Jr.
Superintendent
