REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Lewisville Middle School is proud to be a school in the Chester County School District. Lewisville Middle School is proud of the community, parents, students, and district office staff that supports it. The school's successful Real Men Read/Foxy Ladies Read reading program continues to induct new members monthly. Students were awarded various incentives for reaching their reading goals. Thirteen students were selected as Junior Scholars.

Thirty members were inducted into the Beta Club this year, compared to sixteen last year. Students continue to show gains and improvement in scores on the MAP tests taken during the school year. The school continues to use its Good Character Program and Advisor/Advisee program to develop good citizens throughout the school and in the community.

The Empty Stocking Fund, March of Dimes, Pennies for Patients, and Relay For Life were service learning projects in which the school participated.

The multicultural celebration continues to be an important program at Lewisville Middle School. The program was expanded to highlight and celebrate various cultures at the school and their contributions to the American culture.

Making Middle Grades Work continues to be an important school-wide initiative.

The Parents In Action Team and School Improvement Council continue to be valuable assets to the school. The school business partners (Mr. Larry Terry, Walmart, and Coca-Cola, and David Lee and Son) continue to provide financial support and services to the school.

The school's data team reviewed all data (MAP, report cards, PACT etc.) in making decisions that provided quality instruction to the students.

Lewisville received an absolute score of average on the states' school report card.

Lewisville Middle School will continue to provide a safe environment, quality instruction and quality education to all of its students. Lewisville Middle School will continue to make decisions in the best interest of the students and is committed to making strides through academic programs, extracurricular events, and lifelong character building efforts.

H. L. Erwin, Principal
