REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2009-10 school year at North Aiken Elementary School proved to be a great year for the students, teachers, staff, and parents. There were successes as well as challenges. The school was a recipient of the USDA Fresh Fruit and Vegetables Grant. The school was also awarded the 21st Century Community Learning Center Grant (CCLC). We partnered with Aiken Families In Transition to provide initiatives that will increase the quality of students' academic success, youth development, family support, and literacy education. The students in the 21st CCLC have participated in a variety of educational and fun activities to include Assignment Earth: Dinner Theater, field trip to Charleston, production of Cinderella, robotics, karate, and physical fitness. North Aiken partnered with Clemson Extension to offer the SNAP-Ed Program to kindergarten and first grade students. The students were engaged in nutrition and wellness activities. Fifth grade girls had an opportunity to take part in Girl Circle sponsored by Aiken Youth Empowerment. The girls were taught about making positive choices.

North Aiken continued its partnership with the University of South Carolina Aiken as a Professional Development School for early childhood practicum students. The teachers at North Aiken continued to provide quality education based on best practices. Measures of Academic Progress (MAP) was utilized as an assessment tool to assist teachers in providing individualized and small group instruction for students. Teachers provided Spring Break Packets with grade-level, standards-based activities in math and reading for students to practice during their break. North Aiken met AYP and scored Average for the Absolute and Improvement Ratings. The last time the school scored Average in both ratings was 2001. The school's percentage of African American students and students on subsidized meals exceeded the district's and state's percentages of African American students and students on subsidized meals in the areas of writing, ELA, and math.

A motivational speaker was instrumental in the back to school kickoff. He provided a powerful message for students, parents, teachers, and staff. He returned to North Aiken in April to provide encouragement to students and professional development to teachers for test preparation. There were various opportunities for parents and family members to participate in parenting events. Some of the major parenting events for 2009-2010 included the following: Grands Are Great, Empowering Dads Breakfast, Empowering Moms Breakfast, Literacy Night, and Art Extravaganza. Family members were also encouraged to participate in the North Aiken Community Events. The following are some of the community events: Bowling Night at Park Avenues Lane, Library Night at the Public Library, and Science Education Enrichment Day (S.E.E.D) at USCA.

We thank the students, teachers, staff, and parents for a great year. We look forward to continuing to work together to meet the needs of the students. We encourage input from parents, community members, teachers, staff, and students.
