REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2009-2010 school year has been a year of incredible growth, achievement and recognition for Indian Land Middle School. Our primary focus has not changed and will continue to be on providing a challenging curriculum for all student learners while providing a substantive program that exposes students to various activities. In January of 2010 our school was designated as a National School To Watch through a partnership between the S.C. Middle School Association and the National Forum to Accelerate Middle Grades Reform. This process considered four key areas within our school; Academic Excellence, Developmental Responsiveness, Social Equity, and Organizational Structures and Practices. The rigorous process allowed our school to evaluate and create new programs for the benefit of every student in our school.

ILMS was also named a South Carolina State School of Character for our dedication to incorporating character education in our daily curriculum, group meetings, assemblies, events, and more. We continue to add programs to meet these requirements. This year we added a new Warrior Time Advisory Program as well as providing free tutoring for all students in all classes every week.

Additional accolades for the year included the Palmetto Silver Award and the Red Carpet Award. Our School Improvement Council received Honor Roll recognition in the Dick and Tunky Riley Award which recognized the council's commitment to providing parent seminars.

ILMS continues to serve as a pilot expansion site for the State Department of Education and the Keeping Learning on Track program. Staff members have continued working on advanced skills in the area of monitoring of student work through Professional Learning Teams as well as continued focus on aligning classroom practice to standards and careful development of strong assessment strategies.

Community support continues to assist our school through grants, recognition for students, and providing new technology to our classrooms.

Utilizing data and providing a viable curriculum for all learners continues to be our focus as a school as we continue to increase rigor and maintain high standards for all learners.

Lisa Hall, School Improvement Council Chairperson
