REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT

Tradition, Excellence, and Innovation continued to define District Seven as we embarked upon a strategic planning process during the 2010-11 school year designed to enhance curriculum, improve instruction, increase student achievement, and bring about greater levels of efficiency. This plan included the planning of an early learning center at Park Hills, a middle grades (6-8) configuration, and a freshman academy for 9th graders on the campus of Spartanburg High.

Despite challenges we all faced as a result of our economy, the year was filled with remarkable success. We became one of only 32 school districts in the state to receive district accreditation from AdvancED, a distinctive mark of quality recognized internationally. Four schools earned a Palmetto Gold or Silver award for attaining high levels of academic achievement and high rates of growth or closing the achievement gap. Expansion of the district's choice initiatives brought about a fully established International Baccalaureate School as well as a highly technological Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) school.

District Seven maintained its tradition of excellence in all facets of student life. Spartanburg High School had two students register perfect scores on the SAT and three students named National Merit Finalists. SHS also earned a place in Washington Post's "Top Schools" in the country in recognition of its AP program. The Class of 2011 earned $14,272,186 dollars in merit-based scholarships. In athletics, nine regional championships, two county championships, and three state runner-up titles were awarded. Our orchestras, choruses, and bands received superior ratings at Concert Festival; and the marching band placed in the top 10 at this year's state final.

Our community is a wonderful place to live, and the support given to our schools is unsurpassed. Our board is focused on what's best for students, and it's not possible to work with a staff more dedicated to meeting the needs of young people. We thank our students, teachers, parents, strategic partners, and community for their active involvement as we continue to promote positive changes that will further drive the district to future success. Please know that we remain committed to providing the best possible education for all the students we are fortunate to serve.
