REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Colleton County High School was initially accredited under the auspices of Walterboro High School by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in 1954 and has achieved 57 years of accredited educational service to the citizens of Colleton County. This year, CCHS was awarded the Riley Institute New Tech Grant in the amount of $3 million and also received a $45,000 matching grant from SCB&T. CCHS developed a PTO which is actively generating parental interest in the community. This was the second year CCHS received the prestigious Palmetto Silver Award. CCHS was also awarded the "Cool School Award" from WCB Channel 2. At CCHS, we are proud of the academic accomplishments of all of our students during the 2011-2012 year. The Class of 2012 graduated 306 students with 297 State High School diplomas and 10 State Certificates, 16 Employability Certificates, and 14 Certificates of Attendance. This class included 6 Palmetto Fellows, 89 Life Scholarships and 29 Hope Scholarships, and a total scholarship amount of $2,702,300. One student had 12-years perfect attendance. CCHS Academic Team placed first in the USC Salkehatchie Bowl, and in the South Carolina State Champion High School Division fall 2011 and spring 2012 placed first in The Knowledge Master Open. In extracurricular activities, CCHS continues to shine placing 8th in the State Championship Drill Meet and with the NJROTC Unit for receiving the Distinguished Unit Achievement Award for the fifth consecutive year. This is the ninth out of 14 years that the NJROTC Unit has been recognized as a top performer in the United States. Cougar athletic teams proved competitive again this year qualifying for regionals in girls' basketball and wrestling. Two students qualified for the state wrestling championship. Jalacy Green was awarded the most prestigious award in high school sports, the 2011-12 Gatorade South Carolina Girls Track and Field Athlete of the Year for athletic excellence, academic achievement and exemplary character. Retiring Coach Leroy Riley was recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award by the S.C. High School Sports Report. Mrs. Lorraine Browning was appointed athletics director for the coming year. Focusing on the arts, the students in the Colleton County High School Chorus Department continues to provide outstanding entertainment during its annual winter musical "Celebrate the Holidays" and spring musical "Footloose". CCHS Drama Department performed "Murder on Center Stage" by Jerry Twedt. Our Band of Blue continued its tradition of excellence placing 1st in Class V at the United States Scholastic Band Association South Carolina Regional. Colleton County High School Varsity Winter Guard placed 3rd at the Scholastic AAAA division at the Carolina Winter Ensemble Association Premier and advanced to AAA and AA divisions. Fifteen band students were named to the 2012 South Carolina Band Directors Association Region Honors Band. The high school remained active in the community by hosting the National Honor Society Blood Drives, Student Council Pennies for Patients, and NJROTC Adopt-A-Highway program and supporting the March of Dimes campaign with $1150, American Red Cross, "Heroes for Fire Victims" with $1569.83, and $6,500 for Relay For Life to support cancer research. We continue to focus our efforts on providing a quality education for all our students. Our goal is to provide every student the support and resources needed to be successful. We would like to thank our teachers, parents, and students who helped make the many successes of this year possible with their commitment to the cause of education in Colleton County. These initiatives and success stories are testimony to our commitment to motivate a high number of students to accomplish their personal goal of high school graduation from an academically rigorous and challenging school composed of caring, competent, and committed educators.
