REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

As a result of dedication and hard work by many stakeholders, Mauldin High School created a culture of collaboration, which led to a highly successful 2011-2012 school year both academically and athletically. Mauldin High was recognized once again by Newsweek magazine as one of the top public high schools. Academically, Mauldin High School continues a tradition of excellence. The class of 2012 received scholarships totaling over $15 million. Two Naval ROTC scholarships were awarded to students attending The University of South Carolina. Thirty-four students were named Palmetto Fellows, and nineteen students graduated with South Carolina Academic Honors. Among these students was the valedictorian who was also named a Greenville County School Student of the Year for getting the highest ACT score in the district. In 2012, more than seven hundred seventy AP exams were taken by Mauldin High students. Our strong academic program is supported by a dedicated staff that includes guidance and career specialists who met with each student individually to create a graduation plan this year. Students were provided job shadowing opportunities throughout the year and guest speakers were encouraged in all disciplines. Our Teacher Cadets had career-exploratory opportunities and participated in several leadership workshops. Service Learning students provided over 7,000 hours of service in our community. The Future Business Leaders of America Club students provided computer workshops to senior citizens in the community. During our annual Spirit Week, the Student Council led the student body in raising over $60,000 for Building Dreams. The Robotics team was once again recognized for their outstanding abilities and their attention to safety. In athletics, the Girls Tennis Team and the Competitive Cheerleading Team won 2011-2012 State Championships. Baseball was runner up in the Upper State Finals. Additionally, three other athletic teams won region championships. Mauldin High was fifth out of forty-eight schools overall in the South Carolina Athletic Directors Cup. This was the sixth year we have been in the top five. Thirteen student athletes signed to play college athletics in the fall of 2012 and sixty-six student athletes received regional and state accolades. The Mauldin High PTSA volunteers logged over 55,000 volunteer hours for the school year. On any given day in 2011-2012, Mauldin had at least fifteen volunteers working throughout the school as aides, classroom speakers, and tutors while many others worked for the athletic, band, and debate boosters. The cooperative endeavors of Mauldin High School stakeholders support our vision statement: the administration, faculty, and staff of Mauldin High School, in conjunction with the students, their families, and the community, shall provide every student the opportunity, challenge, and support to realize his or her potential and the ability to assume a productive role in a democratic society. This shared vision is what has made and will continue to make Mauldin High School successful.
