REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2011-2012 school year was filled with many successes, as well as much change as Spartanburg High School welcomed ninth graders for the first time in history by implementing a Freshman Academy. Our students and staff earned local, state, and national recognition in academics, fine arts, performing arts, athletics and community service. Our students, staff, parents, and community are committed to providing world-class educational opportunities for all students. SHS continues to be annually recognized by The Washington Post (previously Newsweek) as one of the top high schools in the country for its outstanding Advanced Placement program. It has been a stellar year for Spartanburg High School with 102 College Board AP scholars, two Presidential Scholar semifinalists and merit scholarships totaling over $15.6 million over a four year college career. The Class of 2012 has distinguished itself with ten seniors recognized by the National Merit/Achievement scholarship program as finalists, semi finalists, or commended students. Additionally, 96 seniors qualified to earn a $5,000 LIFE scholarship. Twenty seven seniors were recognized as Palmetto Fellows Scholarship winners.

Our fine arts and athletic programs continued to excel and perform at a high level. Orchestra, band and chorus received superior ratings at the state competitions. The South Carolina High School League recognized 36 seniors as athlete-scholars for having a 3.5 grade point ratio or higher. Our athletic teams won 7 region championships in 2011-2012.
