REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Six Mile Elementary School, in cooperation with students, teachers and parents, continued its mission to provide a quality education that encourages achievement for all students in a safe and caring environment. As evidence of its continued commitment to academic excellence and student safety, Six Mile Elementary School received Palmetto Gold and Silver Awards for excellent ratings in student achievement and was recognized as an Upstate Safe Kids School for the sixth consecutive year. As a result, Six Mile Elementary remained in the upper echelon in public education. In pursuit of the vision and mission at Six Mile Elementary, teachers participated in a monthly book chat centered on the book The Leader in Me by Stephen Covey which promotes developing leaders with 21st century skills. In continuing daily common planning time, monthly school-wide meetings, CCSS training, workshops and conferences teachers were informed of the latest research and best practices in various subject areas. Six Mile Elementary continued initiatives to promote high achievement in literacy, math and science by using the balanced literacy model, nightly reading in level text, Marcy Cook math strategies, and journal boards in the areas of math and language arts, STEM activities and writing across the curriculum. Flexible grouping was used in order to differentiate instruction to address student needs. Innovative programs already in place at Six Mile Elementary include: PolyVision Boards in each classroom, academic achievement recognition and awards, grade level and school-wide service learning projects, character education programs, SIC and PTO, family academic nights, comprehensive art, music and physical education programs and a challenging and interactive curriculum. All teachers at Six Mile Elementary are Highly Qualified and eight teachers are National Board Certified. Volunteers also played a vital role at Six Mile Elementary. The large number of trained parents and community members allowed us to continue a tutorial program led by volunteers. Dads and father figures volunteered their time as WATCH D.O.G.S. to provide positive male role models for the students and to enhance school security. Six Mile Elementary partnered with student athletes from Southern Wesleyan University to provide a mentoring program for the students. The SIC, PTO and community members continued to support our school in a variety of ways during another difficult economic year. These efforts have shown that the collaboration of all stakeholders is vital in fulfilling our vision to build success beyond the classroom while promoting the development of the "whole child" and developing leaders with 21st century skills.
