REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

T. L. Hanna, an International Baccalaureate World School, located in the growing community of Anderson, South Carolina, has a strong tradition of academic excellence. U.S. News and World Report has ranked TLH for the second year in a row as one of the top high schools in S.C. and in the top 6% in the nation. The diverse student body consists of approximately 1750 students. The strengths of the school include a rigorous curriculum that prepares students for higher education and the work force; access to advanced technology; a nationally-ranked Advanced Placement Program; and a high college acceptance rate with the Class of 2013 earning in excess of $15 million. TLH graduated its second class of students who earned an International Baccalaureate diploma this year. The school has now applied to be part of the IB Middle Years Program as well, which will offer this rigorous curriculum to freshmen and sophomore students. TLH is in its second year of the TLH Law Academy, taking advantage of the numerous faculty members with Juris Doctorate degrees. Our challenge continues to be meeting the needs of all of our students. We have increasing numbers of students who live in poverty, who speak English as a second language, and who have learning disabilities. Because of both the state and national economies, we continue to have financial woes. We strive to find ways to supplement our district budget with alternative sources. TLH has been named a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence; a "Palmetto's Finest" state award winner; a Siemens award winner in math, science, and technology; a "Flagship School of Promise;" and a Gold Medallion winner for results on S.C.'s state report cards. The TLH band has won the "Rex Parade" at Mardi Gras for multiple years. It is with an outstanding faculty/staff, student body, and high parental/community support that TLH continues to strive to be the "high school of excellence."
