REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Westview Middle School, home of the Titans, is an exciting place to be. The 2012-2013 school year was filled with energy, enthusiasm and achievement as our school was again recognized as a Palmetto Silver Award School. We continued to implement the Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) process founded on five pillars of success at Westview: Teamwork, Individual Responsibility, Tolerance for Others, Academic Success, and Never Ending Respect. While we experienced success, we also recognize that PBIS is a process for continuous improvement. Therefore, we are in a state of constant reflection and revision in order to meet the needs of our students.

Student involvement is a key to achievement, self confidence, attitude, and positive behavior. Therefore, our goal is to ensure that all students experience that sense of belonging. Academics, athletics, extra-curricular activities, mentors, programs and partnerships provided the vehicles for all to be involved. Our School Improvement Council and PTO Board worked tirelessly with staff to ensure that all students' needs were met. Technology continued to be a focal point for growth.

Students were recognized for many successes including Duke Tip Scholars, Jr. Scholars, Invention Convention Winners, Academic Challenge Team Winners, ECO Team Winners and athletics to name a few. Teachers participated in many hours of professional development and continued to lead our school through their tireless work.

Professional Learning Communities (PLC's) were held on a regular basis as a foundation for instructional decisions. Data was carefully analyzed, plans were adapted, instruction was delivered and students were engaged in the learning. The Common Core Standards provided a new foundation for our growth in order to meet the needs of all students.

Students and staff were involved in a myriad of service learning projects, including The United Way, March of Dimes, Relay for Life, the local food bank, the Humane Society, Lake Greenwood Clean Up Day and local community needs.

Our school theme for the 2012-2013 school year was "Effort Equals Excellence." We worked diligently throughout the school year as we focused on our goal of excellence.

Jeff Constant, School Improvement Chair
