

State and federal laws require public schools to release report cards to the public each year. This year, the report card has been updated to reflect changes in reporting directed by the SC Education Oversight Committee. Schools will not be rated for state accountability purposes until Fall 2017 when the state will transition to a single accountability system. The following reports student performance in school year 2014-15.

Our school is helping all students develop the world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the Graduate by... Creating authentic opportunities for students to move “beyond the basics” as they embrace the 4C’s as defined by the Partnership for 21st Century Skills. Centerville Academy of 21st Century Learning focuses on providing exceptional, student-centered classroom instruction that promotes communication, collaboration, critical thinking, and creativity. Students are encouraged to not just be consumers of current information, but producers of new knowledge through inquiry, research, and the sharing of ideas as they work with others to solve real world problems. By integrating the 4C’s and giving students the opportunities to use their knowledge in a project or problem-based learning environment, we are able to assist our students in developing the skills needed to be successful in this every-changing, global society. A genuine respect for others, an appreciation of diverse viewpoints, and an ability to solve conflicts peacefully are the bi-products of our instructional process that stresses collaboration and puts the responsibility for learning back on the students. Our students, teachers, and parents also participate in the completion of a 21st Century Learner Profile which is a tool that supports goal setting and student reflection while serving as a guide for continuous improvement. At Centerville our goal is that students become confident, independent, and reflective thinkers who have the perseverance, work ethic, and interpersonal skills commonly found in successful graduates. Our school’s challenge is to ensure that all students demonstrate competency in reading, writing, math, science, and social studies, attend school regularly, are safe and healthy, acquire the 21st Century skills, and develop the character traits that will lead to success in their personal and academic lives. At Centerville Academy of 21st Century Learning we encourage parental involvement and invite all stakeholders to join us in our commitment to see every student achieve at his or her maximum potential in a thriving, dynamic, and inspiring educational environment.
