South Carolina State Report Card

State and federal laws require public schools to release report cards to the public each year. This year, the report card has been updated to reflect changes in reporting directed by the SC Education Oversight Committee. Schools will not be rated for state accountability purposes until Fall 2017 when the state will transition to a single accountability system. The following reports student performance in school year 2014-15.

Our school is helping all students develop the world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the Graduate by setting high expectations for learning and development for both teachers and students. Through the use of instructional coaches and teacher leaders our teachers participate in weekly professional development to enhance instructional best practices across the curriculum. Students take part in formative assessments, allowing teachers to provide targeted, individualized instruction that will allow students to develop mastery of the rigorous standards of learning. To maximize student engagement, teachers use flexible grouping configurations to promote collaboration and teamwork. Technology integration, such as the use of one to one devices in grades 3 and 4, specific software, and interactive white boards, enhances the abilities of students to think critically, communicate information, and promotes inquiry. Through participation in clubs, students broaden their perspectives, learn new skills, and enhance talents. Club offerings include chess, cooking, gardening, and robotics to incorporate arts, logical reasoning, technology, and engineering. Arts integration as our school choice is strategically planned to address the multiple learning styles and aptitudes of our students. Creativity and innovation allow students to express their content understanding in ways that match their strengths.

* 21st Century core courses in Social Sciences include History, Geography, Economics, Government and Civics.
