WORLD CLASS SKILLS & LIFE AND CAREER CHARACTERISTICS

Camden Elementary School of the Creative Arts helps all students develop the world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the SC Graduate by ensuring that our students are well prepared for their futures. We provide students with challenging opportunities through technology and the creative arts in a safe and nurturing environment. We stress improving those skills needed to be successful in both reading and math. To help students succeed in the new SC State Standards, we added 50-minute blocks to the schedule for teachers to review, reteach and reinforce math and reading skills. We implemented a 1st and 2nd grade enrichment class to provide struggling students with a small class environment and intense reading and math instruction. We also have a reading coach and reading interventionist. Teachers are expected to differentiate instruction and include rigor in their lessons and assessments. Students learn about the Scientific Process which culminates in a school-wide Science Fair. We implemented Empowering Writers (a school-wide writing program), Accelerated Reader, Google Docs and a variety of computer programs to reteach and reinforce skills. Students blossom under the tutelage of artists-in-residence in the areas of art, theater and music. We also have seen our 3rd grade strings students improve with every performance. The 4th and 5th grade chorus gave performances for the school and community often accompanied by recorders, guitars or percussion instruments. Student artwork can be seen throughout the school and a spring arts' night provides a showcase of student work in all areas of the arts. Camden Elementary students have opportunities to develop leadership skills and good character traits. We use Positive Interventions and Support (PBIS) which rewards students for positive behaviors. Students demonstrate leadership skills through the Beta Club, safety patrol and Safe Schools Ambassadors. Some serve as "buddies" in a special needs classroom. Fifth graders supervise field day activities as well as the end-of-the-year PBIS celebration. Our theme "Together We Make the Difference" is regularly demonstrated by students, parents, teachers and community members working closely together. A strong School Improvement Council (SIC) and Camden Elementary Partners (CEP) provide immeasurable service to our school through fundraisers, school-wide activities and an unbelievable number of volunteers. Laura Battiata, School Improvement Council Chairperson
