Claude A. Taylor Elementary School is helping all students develop the world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the South Carolina Graduate by providing a safe, caring, and academically challenging learning environment. We are committed to growing each student by allowing their individual capabilities and abilities (academic, social, and emotional) to serve as the compass that directs their path to success. Through rigorous instruction and data driven decisions, our teachers are committed to arming students with the tools needed to succeed. Throughout the 2014-15 school year, our staff participated in professional development focused on becoming a National Paideia School. Paideia is an instructional model that empowers students to be active learners and critical thinkers. Teachers and students participated in Socratic Seminars in various subject areas. Seminar teaches our students how to interact in a positive manner and builds community in our classrooms and school. Seminar also allows our teachers and students to model the soft skills necessary to become compassionate and motivated thinkers who are preparing to be productive 21st century learners and leaders. At C.A.Taylor, we also have various programs outside of the academic world to focus on the development of the whole child. We partnered with Trinity Baptist Church and Transfiguration Lutheran Church to provide much needed food at home and supplies for our students. Service projects included participating in a Pennies for Patients Drive for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society; collecting canned goods for the Cayce Cares Project; and collecting funds for the American Heart Association. Additionally, we promoted healthy minds and bodies by having a co-ed Run Hard team each semester and partnered with the Cayce Tennis and Fitness Center to offer tennis lessons to our students. Our SIC and PTO members continue to support our school with funding and volunteer assistance for events such as the annual school carnival, school-wide celebrations, and our annual B or Better Banquet, honoring students who have excelled academically throughout the year. SCANA continues to sponsor our afterschool Homework Center, the only one in Lexington Two. The support and hard work of all of these groups and individuals are integral to our school's continued success. With the collaborative efforts of parents, the community, our school board, teachers, and students, we will continue to "Grow Tomorrow's Thinkers Today". Ms. Angie Bell, SIC Chairperson Mrs. Mary Lance Garrison, Principal

* 21st Century core courses in Social Sciences include History, Geography, Economics, Government and Civics.
