WORLD CLASS SKILLS & LIFE AND CAREER CHARACTERISTICS

Our school is helping all students develop the world class skills and life and career Characteristics of the Profile of the Graduate by allowing our students to participate in a broad array of learning experiences both in and out of the classroom. Teachers anchor curriculum around authentic projects in science and math that connect with real-world experiences. Our teachers not only use real world examples in everyday lessons, they tie projects into real world challenges. Our students solve real world problems and learn to think critically using technology, manipulatives, and small learning teams. In these teams, they not only learn from each other, but learn to communicate effectively. We are pleased to provide you with our annual school report card. It contains data highlighting the successes and challenges of the 2014-2015 school year. The numbers, however, can only tell part of the story. Foster Park is home to outstanding students, teachers, and families, and has been for over fifty years. We celebrate our classroom instruction. Through the use of research-based practices, teachers are able to identify each student's strengths and needs and plan instruction accordingly. Over 90% of our students were reading on grade level by year's end. Our students participated in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) activities throughout the year. We celebrate the infusion of technology into our curriculum. A computer lab, along with mobile iPad and laptop labs are utilized to teach math, writing, science, and writing. Students learn research skills along with keyboarding and publishing. We celebrate our arts program. With the support from grant funding, Foster Park students are immersed in the arts. During the 2014-2015 school year, they worked with a master artist to create a timeline mural. Students learned to how to play the harmonica and heard a children's author/illustrator share her books. And throughout the year, the students danced, sang, and acted their way into the hearts of the community through outstanding productions, including the musical, Annie. Foster Park also celebrates our community service projects. During the 2014-2015 school year our students visited local nursing homes, sent letters to the troops, collected food for the animal shelter, participated in Relay for Life, collected shoes and coats, and found the joy that comes with serving others. Finally, we celebrate you, the parents and guardians. Without you, our team would be incomplete. Together, we are preparing your child to be a successful student now and a graduate in the years to come.
