Silver Bluff High School serves the communities of Beech Island, Jackson, and New Ellenton, South Carolina. Situated near the historic Silver Bluff on the Savannah River, Silver Bluff High School has been the home of the Bulldogs since the fall of 1981. Our mission at SBHS is to prepare students to become responsible life long learners by providing diverse learning experiences in a positive environment where the school and community work together. Through the development of relationships with area churches to enhance our character education, students can and will succeed. We strive to help each other by Character Building through a collective effort to progressively move our school forward. SBHS has developed an academic environment where administration and faculty have collectively developed strategies that will increase the graduation rate, EOC results and the retention rates for our students. Through the collection of data, detailed analysis and the implementation of strategies, student learning has shown consistent change within our schools efforts to impact the organizational culture of the school. The empowerment of people to cause change within their educational organization can be a powerful element that ultimately makes SBHS a better place. The current level of organizational competence at Silver Bluff High School is promising, as new initiatives are introduced by a dedicated and professional faculty. Silver Bluff High school remains committed to being a responsible community partner. Our school is helping all students develop the world class skills which will allow them to compete in a Global Society. To that end, SBHS has developed partnerships with Georgia Regents University, University of South Carolina-Aiken, and Aiken Technical College to enhance learning opportunities for our students. We continue to focus on literacy and its impact on student learning, as well as grow our Career and Technology Education (CATE) opportunities. Student requests for CATE opportunities has increased with the addition of our new Agriculture Education Program. Silver Bluff High School continues to be a school of excellence within Aiken County. In the classroom, teachers have been provided technology that will allow them to enhance student learning.
