Our school is helping all students develop the world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the Graduate by ...

Williston-Elko High School prides itself on developing students with world class skills and life and career characteristics of the Profile of the South Carolina Graduate. We do this by establishing positive, caring relationships between staff and students while providing an academically challenging learning environment. We work closely with our district and the community to achieve the district vision: "to work as a united faculty and community which promotes respectful and productive citizens who are prepared for the global work force." We demonstrate this vision by challenging our students with best practices to reach their full academic potential and by challenging them to provide service to their school and community. Our school and district offers in house professional development to teachers and encourages outside participation in other development opportunities. Our students are taught by some of the finest teachers in South Carolina. We have had various academic successes throughout the year, specifically an increase in our End of Course scores. Our graduation rate remains extremely high, and we were rated the 322nd best high school in the nation by Newsweek for educating students of poverty. At Williston-Elko High School we also have various programs outside of the classroom that focus on the development of the whole child. Our guidance focus team implements a weekly advisement curriculum to focus on character education. Our National Honor Society and National Beta Club carry out peer tutoring and community service projects throughout the year. Other organizations such as FBLA, FEA, and Club Truth implement school and community service projects throughout the year. It is imperative that our students learn what it means to be a leader because these skills will help ensure success in life. We celebrate these positive behaviors with our student of the month luncheons and principal advisory breakfasts. We also reward positive behavior and academic success through awards, recognition, and outside experiences. We continue to partner with community businesses to offer our students School-to-Work field experiences. Finally, we continue to offer breakfast in the classroom and afternoon snack program for students who stay for tutoring. This program ensures all students have a healthy breakfast in the morning and a snack to fuel them through the afternoon. Student-athletes at WEHS excel both on and off the field and are expected to attend weekly mandated tutoring sessions. Coaches strive to build positive relationships with athletes, which helps develop students who are academically, socially, and morally sound. We believe that well educated, high-character student-athletes lead to success on the field. We won numerous region championships, had all-region and all-state performers, and competed in state playoffs in 8 out of 10 sports. The arts have also been a focal point at WEHS. Our band continues to improve in competition and our drama production performs for sold out audiences. Additionally, our speech and debate and math teams compete throughout the state and have received
