

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Disciplinary Action of the Educator Certificate of Emily Anne Grant Maloney
Certificate 269591

ORDER OF SUSPENSION (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on September 13, 2022. On February 4, 2022, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent Emily Anne Grant Maloney a notice via regular and certified mail of her right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate. The SCDE has verified Emily Anne Grant Maloney's address and the letter sent via regular mail has not been returned. On June 17, 2022, the SCDE informed Ms. Maloney via regular mail that the State Board would meet on August 9, 2022, or as soon thereafter as is feasible, to consider action against her educator certification. Under the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure 5(b), Ms. Maloney has been given fair notice of constitutional due process. Ms. Maloney has not contacted the SCDE to request a hearing and is now in default.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. Maloney's educator certificate for a period of one year, commencing September 13, 2022, and ending on September 12, 2023.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint of the Darlington County School District (District) seeking the suspension of the educator certificate of Ms. Maloney for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2020) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020).

On April 20, 2021, Ms. Maloney signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as a teacher for 2021-22 school year. On December 16, 2021, Ms. Maloney submitted her resignation to the District, effective immediately. On her resignation form, Ms. Maloney checked a box stating she was leaving "to accept/seek work other than a school/state related position.” On December 16, 2021, the District informed Ms. Maloney she would not be released from her contract until a suitable replacement could be found. Ms. Maloney did not return to fulfill her contract. The District Board voted to report Ms. Maloney’s breach of contract to the SCDE on January 10, 2022. The District reported the matter to the SCDE on January 20, 2022.

After considering the evidence, the State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Maloney breached her contract with the District, and that just cause exists to suspend Ms. Maloney’s certificate 269591 for a period of one year, commencing on September 13, 2022, and ending on September 12, 2023.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

“The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person.” Just cause includes, inter alia, “unprofessional conduct” and “willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education.” S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2018). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2018), the State Board of Education had the legal authority to suspend a certificate for “failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board.” With respect to breach of contract, “any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct.” S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2018). “Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the state board shall suspend or revoke the teacher’s certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year.” Id.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Maloney breached her contract without the consent and/or approval of the District. Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board’s determination that just cause exists to suspend the educator certificate of Emily Anne Grant Maloney for a period of one year, commencing on September 13, 2022, and ending on September 12, 2023.
