In the Matter of the

Linda Lee Rish
Certificate 291969

ORDER OF PUBLIC REPRIMAND

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on April 11, 2023. On February 7, 2022, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent Linda Lee Rish a notice letter by certified mail, return receipt, restricted delivery, and regular mail, regarding possible action against her educator certificate. Ms. Rish contacted the SCDE to request a hearing. Prior to a hearing, Ms. Rish reached an agreement with Greenville County School District (District). Ms. Rish has agreed to waive her right to a hearing and enter into this Consent Order of Public Reprimand.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to accept this Consent Order of Public Reprimand.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint from the District seeking the reprimand of Ms. Rish's educator certificate for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2018) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2018).

On April 15, 2021, Ms. Rish signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as an Educator for the 2021-22 school year. Ms. Rish submitted her resignation on November 1, 2021, effective November 28, 2021, citing personal health circumstances. The Greenville County School District informed Ms. Rish that she would be released from her contract once a suitable replacement was found via letter on December 16, 2021. On January 25, 2022, the School Board of Trustees voted to report Ms. Rish's breach of contract to the SCDE. On February 3, 2022, the District reported the matter to the SCDE. On February 7, 2022, the SCDE sent notice of the pending action to Ms. Rish. Seeking an alternate resolution to a hearing, Ms. Rish and the District were able to reach an agreement of a public reprimand.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to accept the Consent Order of Public Reprimand with the terms set forth above.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." Just cause includes, inter alia, "unprofessional conduct" and "willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2020). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2021), the State Board of Education had the legal authority to suspend a certificate for "failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board." With respect to breach of contract, "any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct." S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020). "Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the State Board shall suspend or revoke the teacher's certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year."

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Rish breached her contract without the consent and/or approval of the District. Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board's determination that just cause exists to publicly reprimand certificate 291969, issued in the name of Linda Lee Rish. The public reprimand of Ms. Rish's educator certificate 291969 shall be reported to the NASDTEC Clearinghouse and all South Carolina school districts within thirty days from the date of this order, with the reason stated as "unprofessional conduct, breach of contract, willful neglect of duty, and failure to comply with
