

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Disciplinary Action of the Educator Certificate of
Marie K. van Romburgh
Certificate 300018

ORDER OF SUSPENSION (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on August 13, 2024. On April 11, 2024, and May 7, 2024, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent Marie K. van Romburgh a notice via regular and certified mail of her right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate. The SCDE has verified Ms. van Romburgh's address, and the letter sent via regular mail has not been returned. On June 6, 2024, the SCDE informed Ms. van Romburgh via regular mail that the State Board would meet on August 13, 2024, or as soon thereafter as is feasible, to consider action against her educator certificate. Under the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure 5(b), Ms. van Romburgh has been given fair notice of constitutional due process. She has not contacted the SCDE to request a hearing and is now in default.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. van Romburgh's educator certificate for a period of one year, commencing August 13, 2024, and ending on August 12, 2025.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint from the Greenville County School District (District) seeking the suspension of the educator certificate of Ms. van Romburgh for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2020) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020).

On April 6, 2023, Ms. van Romburgh signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as a teacher for the 2023-2024 school year. On February 26, 2024, Ms.

van Romburgh submitted her resignation to the District, effective immediately. In her resignation, Ms. Van Romburgh stated she wished to pursue other opportunities that more closely aligned with her goals. On March 5, 2024, the District informed Ms. van Romburgh she would not be released from her contract until a satisfactory replacement has been obtained or the superintendent determines that no replacement is necessary. She did not return to fulfill her contract. The District Board voted to report Ms. van Romburgh's breach of contract to the SCDE on March 26, 2024. The District reported the matter to the SCDE on April 5, 2024.

After considering the evidence, the State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. van Romburgh breached her contract with the District, and that just cause exists to suspend Ms. van Romburgh's certificate 300018 for a period of one year, commencing on August 13, 2024, and ending on August 12, 2025.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." Just cause includes, inter alia, "unprofessional conduct" and "willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2020). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2021), the State Board of Education has the legal authority to suspend a certificate for "failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board." With respect to breach of contract, "any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct." S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020). "Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the state board shall suspend or revoke the teacher's certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year." Id.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. van Romburgh breached her contract without the consent and/or approval of the District.

Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board's determination that just cause exists to suspend the educator certificate of Marie K. van Romburgh for a period of one year, commencing on August 13, 2024, and ending on August 12, 2025.

If Ms. van Romburgh wishes to have her educator certificate reinstated at the end of the suspension period, she shall make a written request to the SCDE's Office of Educator Services and shall meet all certification requirements in effect at the time she requests reinstatement. Ms. van Romburgh shall also pay the applicable reinstatement fee. The suspension of Ms. van Romburgh's educator certificate 300018 shall be reported to the NASDTEC Clearinghouse and all South Carolina school districts within thirty days from the date of this order, with the reason stated as "unprofessional conduct, breach of contract, willful neglect of duty, and failure to comply with the provisions of a contract without the written consent of the local school board."

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
