

ATTORNEY

Code BBE

Issued 12/10/76 Revised 4/8/92

Constitutional and Statutory Provisions:

The State Attorney General represents the State Board and the State Board cannot retain other counsel without the Attorney General's approval. (See §§1-7-50, 1-7-80, and 1-7-110, South Carolina Code.)

State Board Rule:

The Office of General Counsel of the State Department of Education shall have a joint appointment with the State Board of Education as approved by the State Attorney General.