

South Carolina Kindergarten Readiness Assessment

2024 [New/Beginner] Data Manager/District Test Coordinator Training PART B: Supporting KRA Administration

Training Date

Wednesday, August 7, 2024 // 9:30am - 11:00am

Description

The Kindergarten Readiness Assessment (KRA) is a developmentally appropriate instrument that measures a child's school readiness across multiple domains. This virtual training for new and beginner data managers and district test coordinators will prepare you to upload teacher, student, and enrollment data so teachers can participate in professional development and administer the KRA. This training will be recorded.

Training Includes:

- 2024 Administration Information
- Creating User Accounts
- Uploading Student and Enrollment Data
- Managing Data, including student transfers
- Q&A opportunities throughout

Experienced data managers are more than welcome to attend; however, for those who would prefer not to go through the whole training again, a recorded webinar for returning and experienced data managers will be made available on the same day.
